Limburg cheese, in German Limburger Kaese, is named Limburg in the Netherlands, where it was first made on is most extensively manufactured. It has no particular season, but is occasionally eaten by Germans, chiefly when they drink beer, at all seasons of the year. Said cheese, on account of the infernal smell it emits, is of course the most unfashionable of all dishes. Limburg cheese, like other cheese, is made, in the main, of milk. But sheep guts, properly cleaned and chopped fine, are mixed with the milk that is used for the manufacture of Limburg cheese. There was the usual large attendance at the 16th Street English Lutheran Chhich and Sunday school vesterday. The pastor preached in the morning from 2 King VI, 16-16; the theme being "God Greater than the Christian's Enemies." The Sunday school was in some of its departments and classes a very jaun and the interest in the coming "Ing Breaking" up to fever heat. Everybody seems to be at work, and intensely at work at this institution. The evening ermon was en "The Healing of the Leper and the Centerian Servant," based on Matthew VIII, 1-13. The points made were that true acceptable faith is, 4, Hold; 2, Humble; 3, Submissively confident.

looked, until in a luckless moment a coat sleeve contains an exact sample of the color used in the freshest job. The people appear to be doing more painting and fixing up this spring than for a number of years. Perhaps the low price of paints and oils has something to do with it. The buildings look fresh and nice in these new coats of paints—drabs, browns and whites predominating—but ere the year rolls around the dust and smoke and soot of our-city make sorry work and soot of our city make sorry work with the fresh, clean paints. But that is no reason why the process should not be repeated with every return of the apple blossoms. As well might you tell woman that she should discard the toil set because powder vanishes into thin air or rouge yields to the evasive influence of soap and water. upposed by a certain class of citizens who are not practical or experienced that Dyspepsia can not invaribly be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST PLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomachs. Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, low spirits, &c., &c. Out of 30,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottle 10 cents. Regular Size 75 cents. For sale by Logan, List & Co. and Laughtin Even. & Co. that Dyspensia can not invaribly be cure Co., and Laughlin Bros. & Co.
